The African American calendars donated by Dr. and Mrs. Elliot B. Palmer of the African American Cultural Complex Raleigh, NC were generously donated by the Lawrence H. Woodard Funeral Home of Brooklyn, NY. Each year the African American Cultural Complex receive the calendars directly from the publishers and manufacturers then they are given to individuals and groups at no cost by the AACC. We are grateful to Rev. Bettye Poole for sharing this wealth of history.

Dr. and Mrs. Palmer are founders and operators of the African American Cultural Complex. Plans are now underway by the City of Raleigh to relocate the complex to the Dorothea Dix Campus as a recognized African American Complex for the City of Raleigh and surrounding communities. Information submitted by Rev. Bettye Poole

College Recognition will be Sunday, July 24th.
